

St. Michael's Episcopal Church Restorations

Location:

- Charleston,
- South Carolina

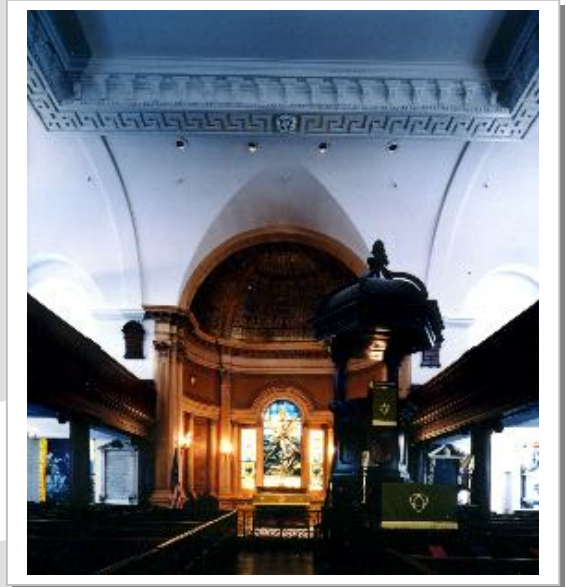

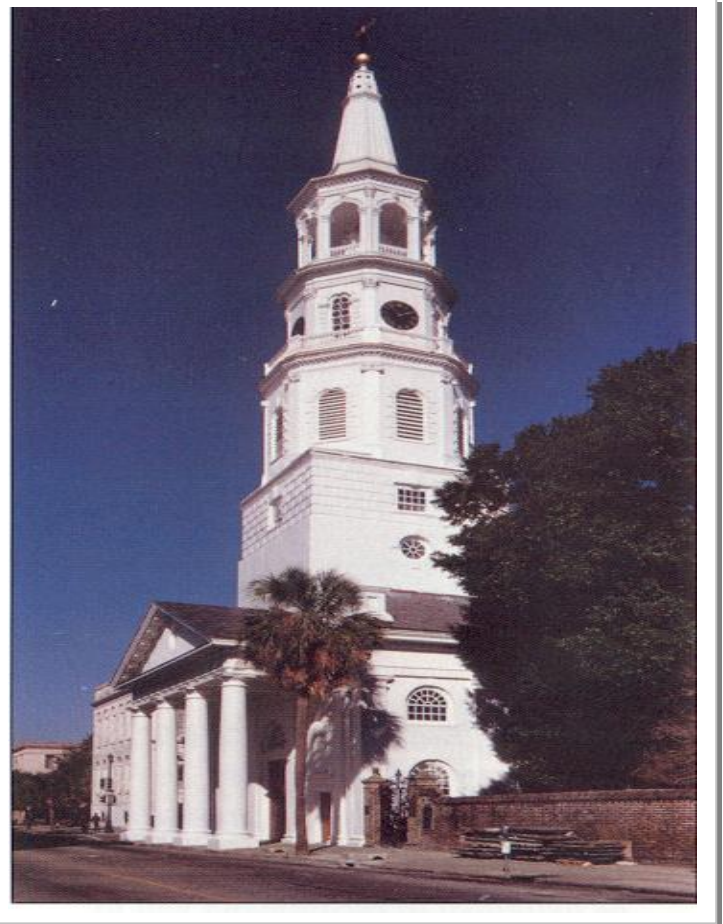

Restorations:

- Clock sent to Ireland and restored to it's 1764 condition
- Bells sent to England and reworked
- Restoration of the wooden spire from lantern support structure to the tip of the lightning rod.
- Rebuilding of the gold leaf ball and lightning protection system.
- Complete stripping of interior and exterior architectural wood details (cornice column capitals, cherub faces, balustrades, etc.).
- Masonry repair.
- Stucco and plaster repair.
- Relaying of multicolored slate shingles and replacing copper gutters.

Completed:

- 1994

295 Seven Farms Drive
Suite 301
Charleston, SC 29492
Office (843) 884-6888
Fax (843) 884-7532

St. Michael's Church, a building of national significance, could not have been in better hands.

Richard I. H. Belser, Rector